

Message

From: Christina Paxson [christina_paxson@brown.edu]
on behalf of Christina Paxson <christina_paxson@brown.edu> [christina_paxson@brown.edu]
Sent: 6/6/2020 1:13:55 PM
To: Kevin Mundt [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: [EXTERNAL] Re: Good letter.

Just to be clear, this call has priority.
I had a good meeting with Sam, Alison, Rich and Theresia. Everyone's onboard with the change in strategy.

Christina Paxson
President, Brown University

On Jun 6, 2020, at 1:06 PM, Kevin Mundt [REDACTED] wrote:

Bob Rothenburg will talk with us this afternoon. I will conference you in. After 2:30

Sent from my iPhone

> On Jun 6, 2020, at 8:39 AM, Christina Paxson <christina_paxson@brown.edu> wrote:

>
> Good idea.

>
> -----

> Christina Paxson
> President, Brown University

> On Jun 6, 2020, at 7:59 AM, Kevin Mundt [REDACTED] wrote:

> We cannot get ahead of the Corporation. I wonder if somehow you should have Jack Hayes signal the head T&F coach, Tim Springfield, to make no more org changes to his staff until further notice?? He has already let go one of the women's runners coaches...

> Sent from my iPad

>> On Jun 6, 2020, at 7:40 AM, Christina Paxson <christina_paxson@brown.edu> wrote:

>>
>> Thanks.

>> You could tell him, when you set up the call, that I'd appreciate his advice on the situation. When you write, you might forward him the letter. He may not be on the distribution list. I'm free anytime after noon.

>> On the call, I would tell him that we are trying to work out a solution that is consistent with the consent decree; I'm quite optimistic; but I can't say anything publicly until we do some double-checking of numbers and get a final blessing from my GC and by the Corporation, which I'm talking to on Tuesday afternoon.

>> The ask: the campaign is getting very negative and could irreparably harm Brown's reputation. Could he help by getting the campaigners to stand down for a few days, but without saying anything too specific? I can't get ahead of the Corporation.

>> Does this sound good?

>> Chris

>> -----
>> Christina Paxson
>> President, Brown University

>>> On Jun 6, 2020, at 7:03 AM, Kevin Mundt [REDACTED] wrote:

>>> Just confirming, you would like me to arrange a call with Bob Rothenburg, former head Track and Field coach at Brown, for this afternoon? Easy to do. Question: what should I tell him as for the reason of the call? And what is our ask of Bob?

>>> Sent from my iPad

>>>

>>>

>>>

>>>

>>>

>>>