

Bailey Glasser Lawyers Speaking at National Consumer Law Center Conference

11.14.19 - 11.17.19
Boston, Massachusetts

On November 17, 2019, Arthur Bryant, Of Counsel at Bailey Glasser and Chairman Emeritus of Public Justice, is scheduled to speak on and moderate a panel on Ethical Issues in Class Actions at the National Consumer Law Center's 50th Anniversary Consumer Rights Litigation Conference and Class Action Symposium. Appearing on behalf of Bailey Glasser, Arthur will discuss overbroad confidentiality and secrecy provisions.

Bailey Glasser Partner Elizabeth Ryan is speaking on a panel discussion "Defending Against Efforts to Compel Arbitration of FDCPA Claims" on November 14, 2019.

Bailey Glasser Partner John Roddy will also take part in a panel discussion "Rule 23f Appeals - Getting Yours Heard and Defendant's Rejected" on November 17, 2019.

The Consumer Rights Litigation Conference and Class Action Symposium provides the opportunity for attendees to learn from the experts about the latest developments in consumer litigation, industry trends, and public policy.
