

Two-Part Webinar Series - Raising Capital & Staying Compliant: It's Not Easy Being Green

12.09.2021 | 1:30 PM ET

Thanks to everyone who joined Part One of Bailey Glasser's two-part raising capital webinar series with lawyers Michael de León Hawthorne and Carlos Duque. Part One of the webinar featured raising capital questions and answers of all sorts -- from avoiding common new venture mistakes, to ensuring compliance with securities laws, to understanding a Simple Agreement for Future Equity (SAFE) between an investor and a company.

A replay of Part One is here.

Part Two of the series will feature a lively 30-minute exchange between Carlos, Michael, and ZenSports co-founder and CEO Mark Thomas, who will discuss his experiences in securing $6.9 million in funding to date for his popular mobile sports betting app, and the lessons he's learned while raising capital.

Among Mark's topics:

- Discussing why and how he secured a roadside Nevada casino
- Syndicating a round of funding without a lead investor
- Using SAFEs and convertible notes to raise capital
- Employing brokers or AngelList syndicates
- Understanding Form D filing and Blue Sky laws

Mark will also discuss the crucial role investors play in any new business. What size check earns an individual a board seat? Should investors also double as advisors?

TWO-PART WEBINAR SERIES - RAISING CAPITAL & STAYING COMPLIANT: IT'S NOT EASY BEING GREEN

We welcome your questions related to this special program. If you have anything specific you would like Carlos to cover, please email your suggestions to JMai@baileyglasser.com.

DATE: Thursday, December 9, 2021

TIME: 1:30-2:00 PM ET

Please click here to register for the webinar.

Attorneys

Carlos E. Duque

Michael de León Hawthorne

Practice Areas

Banking & Financial Services

Business & Finance