

Cooper Construction Co. v. United States Navy

Bailey Glasser obtained $1.85 million settlement involving the Navy's refusal to purchase an office building constructed on a former naval air station at the expiration of a 20-year lease term. Settlement occurred shortly after the team moved for summary judgment.

Attorneys

Jeffrey R. Baron

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation