

Bailey Glasser Scores Victory for Car Dealership in Insurance Dispute

05.30.2019

Law360 covered Bailey Glasser's win for Darcars in its dispute with insurer Universal Underwriters Insurance Co. over the latter's failure to defend the dealership from a lawsuit brought by the daughter of one of the owners who alleged she was denied a promised share in the company. After a three-day trial, the Maryland federal jury sided with plaintiffs John Darvish Sr., John Darvish Jr., Jamshyd Darvish and Mariam Inc., the owners of the Darcars group of dealerships. The jury awarded them $4.28 million, the full amount they sought.

The Bailey Glasser team included partners Rebecca Pomeroy and Cary Joshi.

The full article can be read here.

Attorneys

Cary Joshi

Rebecca D. Pomeroy

Practice Areas

Insurance Recovery