

Bailey Glasser Adds New Tax Service Offering

08.31.2020

Washington, DC, August 31, 2020 – The national law firm Bailey Glasser LLP is pleased to announce the expansion of our portfolio of service offerings by creation of a Tax practice.

The Tax practice will be spearheaded by Washington, DC-based attorney Alexandra Serber. The uniquely broad Tax practice will provide strategic and pro-active counsel to clients, including advocacy and resolution of tax controversies, structuring transactions, entity choice and formation, mergers and acquisitions, financial restructurings, and bankruptcies/reorganizations.

“The tax code is vast and more than ever clients need expert guidance to navigate the ever-changing landscape,” said Alexandra. “I live and breathe the Code and I’m excited to offer this service to our clients.”

We help clients take advantage of new and noteworthy changes in the tax code that can be financially advantageous, such as maximizing Qualified Opportunity Zones to allow taxpayers to reinvest in their own communities. We also advise clients on all potential issues arising during the life cycle of enterprises. While Bailey Glasser takes a proactive approach to helping clients avoid problems with taxing authorities; we also represent clients when State and Federal authorities believe there are tax discrepancies.

“Clients have been clamoring for us to add tax services and we are pleased to formally offer this as part of our deep, sophisticated legal practice,” said Marc Weintraub, a St. Petersburg, Florida-based partner who heads the firm’s Corporate practice group. “Alexandra is a rising tax law superlawyer and I know our clients will be well served by her deep commitment to her clients, experience, work ethic, and excellent judgment.”
