

Ben Lajoie Speaking at Boston Bar Association Seminar

02.13.2018

Ben Lajoie, an attorney in the firm's Boston office, will be speaking at an upcoming Boston Bar Association seminar, Survive and Thrive: Tips of the Trade, on Thursday, February 15, 2018. The Senior Association of the BBA, the Young Lawyers Divisions of the Massachusetts Bar Association, and the Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association will host the program on how to survive and thrive during your first few years of practice.

As an associate, Ben focuses primarily on complex civil litigation. Ben joined Bailey Glasser in 2015 after graduating from the University of New Hampshire School of Law, magna cum laude.
