

Sam Hrko To Be Inducted Into WVSU's Sports Hall of Fame

09.21.2017

Sam Hrko, a partner in the firm's Charleston, West Virginia office, will be inducted into West Virginia State University's Sports Hall of Fame on Saturday, September 30th.

Sam was a four-year Yellow Jacket football player and a captain his junior and senior years. He was a three-time all-WVIAC player (1991-93) and an NAIA honorable mention All-American in 1991 and 1993.

Sam joined Bailey Glasser in 2016 and he works mostly on catastrophic personal injury litigation, representing plaintiffs harmed by automobile accidents, industrial and mining accidents, aviation accidents and tractor-trailer crashes. He also works on product liability cases.

Charleston Gazette-Mail - WVSU to induct 10 into Sports Hall of Fame

Attorneys

Sam A. Hrko