Alexandra Arwood handles complex transactions for a wide range of private businesses and public entities. Her corporate and commercial practice includes commercial lending, mergers and acquisitions, contract negotiation, business organization and reorganization, commercial real estate, and equity and debt financings.

Alexandra has also advised and represented state entities, municipalities, school boards, county commissions and other public bodies with respect to a variety of public financing matters and economic development transactions.

In addition, a large portion of Alexandra's practice has been dedicated to serving as general counsel to organizations in both the private and public sectors. She has also developed a niche practice within the broadband industry by assisting private communications businesses and the State in their efforts to expand broadband internet access across West Virginia.
