Lorren Patterson offers clients substantial experience handling complicated transactions for both privately-owned businesses and large, national companies. Her transactional work involves a wide range of corporate and commercial matters, including mergers and acquisitions, commercial contracting, business reorganizations, equity and debt financings, compliance, and commercial real estate. Lorren's practice also includes handling trademark matters for her business clients with a focus on practical registration, transfer and maintenance.

She also advises and assists clients with the drafting and negotiation of commercial contracts and governance agreements, including purchase and sale agreements, limited liability company agreements, shareholder agreements, consulting agreements, terms and conditions, and various other primary and ancillary transaction, commercial or organizational documents.

In addition, Lorren provides clients with ongoing advice on general corporate matters including entity formation decisions and other governance or operational issues.

Through her prior work providing legal counsel for a regional healthcare system, Lorren offers clients everyday operational advice specific to resolving regulatory compliance and risk management issues.
