

Arthur Bryant Speaking at PLI's 24th Annual Consumer Financial Services Institute

12.10.2019

San Francisco, California

On December 10, Arthur Bryant, Of Counsel at Bailey Glasser and Chairman Emeritus of Public Justice, will speak at Practising Law Institute's 24th Annual Consumer Financial Services Institute in San Francisco, California. Appearing on Bailey Glasser's behalf, Arthur will take part in the panel discussion "Ethical Issues Unique to the Consumer Space."

Topics to be discussed include:

- Are secrecy agreements that hide dangers unethical?
- Access to justice as an ethical issue
- Zealous advocacy and release claims not asserted or known
- Competing cases, reverse auctions, and conflicts of interest

Bailey Glasser Partner Elizabeth Ryan serves as a Chairperson of the Annual Consumer Financial Services Institute.
