

Arthur Bryant Elected to American Law Institute

07.21.2020

Bailey Glasser Of Counsel Arthur Bryant has been elected a new member of the American Law Institute (ALI), the leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize, and otherwise improve the law.

Bryant is the former Chairman and Executive Director of Public Justice, a national public interest law firm created by trial lawyers and currently supported by – and able to call on – over 2,700 of the top plaintiffs’ lawyers in the country. Arthur is based in the firm’s new Oakland, CA office. He has won major victories and established precedents in constitutional law, consumer protection, toxic torts, civil rights, class actions, and mass torts. The National Law Journal has twice named him one of the 100 Most Influential Attorneys in America.

Members of the American Law Institute include judges, lawyers, and law professors from the US and many foreign countries who have demonstrated professional achievements in the law. Members contribute to the development of law by participating in the institute’s work of drafting, discussing, revising, and publishing Restatements of the Law, Model Codes, Principles of Law, and other projects.
