

Bailey Glasser Attorneys Publish Article in Florida Realtor Magazine

03.28.2018

Marc Weintraub and Jiayin Liao, of Bailey Glasser's St. Petersburg, Florida, office, wrote an article featured in the latest issue of Florida Realtor magazine. The centerfold article discusses many of the legal issues that arise when in the sale and purchase of real estate involving international parties.

The article discussed application of the Foreign Investment and Real Property Act, using a power of attorney to represent buyers who cannot be present during the entirety of the sales process, and immigration issues for international buyers.

The magazine is the publication of the Florida Realtors, a trade association with 180,000 members.
