

Bailey Glasser Recognized as Leading Law Firm in Chambers USA Guide

05.29.2015

Bailey Glasser has received the highest ranking as a Band 1 law firm in the newly released Chambers USA 2015 - America's Leading Lawyers for Business in the area of Litigation: General Commercial. The firm is recognized for its robust litigation practice, representing both plaintiffs and defendants, including governments, businesses and consumers.

In addition to the firm ranking, three attorneys from Bailey Glasser were selected for inclusion in Chambers USA Guide as leaders in West Virginia in the following areas:

Litigation: General Commercial (Band 1)

- Benjamin Bailey is described by a source as a "standout" practitioner who is well respected by peers and noted for his "wealth of knowledge." He focuses on big-ticket litigation, including complex commercial litigation and criminal defense investigations.
- "Remarkably bright and fearless" and "a really good creative trial lawyer," Brian Glasser is highly regarded for his expertise in the coal industry.

Labor & Employment (Band 1)

- Ricklin Brown is recognized as "a seasoned, experienced labor and employment lawyer who is among the most capable and qualified lawyers in those practice areas in our region."

Chambers USA is published annually by Chambers & Partners to assess and rank the leading law firms and attorneys throughout the United States. Researchers conduct in-depth interviews of clients, colleagues and lawyers themselves to develop the rankings for the law firms and attorneys.
