

Bailey Glasser Recognized as Leading Law Firm in Chambers USA Guide

06.23.2016

Bailey Glasser has been recognized as a leading law firm in the newly released Chambers USA 2016 - America's Leading Lawyers for Business in the areas of Litigation: General Commercial and Corporate/Commercial. The firm is recognized for its robust litigation practice, representing both plaintiffs and defendants, including governments, businesses and consumers.

In addition to the firm ranking, three attorneys from Bailey Glasser were selected for inclusion in Chambers USA Guide as leaders in West Virginia in the following areas:

Litigation: General Commercial (Band 1)

- Benjamin Bailey is described as "an excellent lawyer who enjoys a good reputation" for his wealth of experience before trial and appellate courts. Market sources hold him in high esteem as "a go-to for any high-stakes investigation, court hearing or litigation - potentially in the country!"
- Brian Glasser is considered to be a "well-skilled" litigator who is "brilliant in the courtroom with a jury."

Labor & Employment (Band 1)

- Ricklin Brown is recognized for his extensive trial experience, representing plaintiffs and defendants in matters arising from the mining, construction, banking and healthcare sectors. Sources report: "He's not afraid of any case, he gets results," and: "He is fantastic - one of the toughest guys you would ever come up against!"

Chambers USA is published annually by Chambers & Partners to assess and rank the leading law firms and attorneys throughout the United States. Researchers conduct in-depth interviews of clients, colleagues and lawyers themselves to develop the rankings for the law firms and attorneys.
