

Chambers and Partners USA Honors Bailey Glasser Lawyers in 2021 USA Guide

06.02.2021

Acknowledging Bailey Glasser's creativity, commitment to client service, and entrepreneurial spirit of the entire firm, Chambers and Partners USA has ranked and recognized both the firm overall and five Bailey Glasser lawyers for inclusion to its 2021 USA Guide.

Bailey Glasser received a Band 1 ranking in West Virginia for Litigation: General Commercial. A Chambers source praised Bailey Glasser's "strong breadth and depth of expertise." In its 2021 USA Guide, Chambers notes that Bailey Glasser has an "impressive team offering experience in both defense and plaintiff representation, regularly handling litigation with significant commercial and political implications. Adept in federal bankruptcies and cases concerning the medical, legal, and financial sectors, and has a niche antitrust practice. Handles both regional and national matters. Widely noted for its handling of cases in the natural resources industry."

Bailey Glasser founding partners Ben Bailey and Brian Glasser were also ranked in Band 1 of the Litigation: General Commercial within West Virginia. Chambers reports that Ben Bailey "has good litigation acumen" and is skilled in numerous areas, including product liability claims, and works with both plaintiffs and defendants.

Brian Glasser is "a creative thinker and outstanding litigator," according to his clients. Brian also "has a national reputation for excellence" and is widely acknowledged expert in commercial litigation, frequently handling trials and arbitration on behalf of clients in the natural resources industry.
