

Court approves $10 million settlement in ERISA class action

04.20.2014

On May 12, 2014, the Court gave final approval to a $10 million settlement in the case Glass Dimensions, Inc. v. State Street Bank and Trust. Bailey Glasser partner Gregory Porter represented the named plaintiff and a class of similar retirement plans. In certifying the class, the court said “Plaintiff’s ... counsel is qualified, experienced, and able to vigorously conduct the proposed litigation. ... Plaintiff’s counsel has extensive experience in conducting ERISA securities class action suits, and Plaintiff’s counsel has demonstrated a thorough approach to all matters presently before the court.”

Attorneys

Gregory Y. Porter

Practice Areas

ERISA, Employee Benefits & Trust Litigation