

Energy Supplier Wins $1.6 Million Judgment in Contract Dispute

02.24.2017

Judge David E. Cain of the Franklin County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas awarded Gatling Ohio, LLC, a $1.6 million judgment, plus interest, in a contract dispute with Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC. The total awarded damages, with interest, are more than $2 million dollars.

The dispute was over a coal sales agreement established in 2008, amended in 2012 to allow delivery of substitute coal from a different mine. In 2012, Allegheny refused to pay the full price for coal delivered and refused to accept additional coal from the new mine.

Gatling Ohio sued. In a complicated ruling, the Court found Gatling Ohio was owed $1.6 million plus interest, from Allegheny Energy.

Gatling Ohio was represented by Brian Glasser and Maryl Sattler of Bailey Glasser, Rodney Smith, with Bailess Smith PLLC, and Michael J. Boyle Jr.

Attorneys

Brian A. Glasser

Practice Areas

Business & Finance